

What can I do with "Listaller manager"

Written by Ximion

Tuesday, 13 January 2009 19:39 -

Listaller manager allows you to remove every application that is installed on your system - those which aren't installed with Listaller too!

The tool also allows access to getIPK, an IPK catalogue. If you use the "Install application" button and select a package that you is not compatible with your distribution, liManager will convert and install it using the tool "alien".